For more information: manchesterhistory.org

We are creating life-size bronze statues of notable citizens who made unique and extraordinary contributions to our community.

The first statue is of Joe McCluskey, 1911- 2002 – Considered to be Manchester's greatest athlete, Joe was an Olympic medalist, national recordholder, and four-time Manchester Road Race winner. His statue will be located along the Road Race route across from Highland Park Market, in the parklet on the East Coast Greenway walking trail.
