

Green Energy Projects

The Planning and Economic Development Department's latest video highlights projects in Town using green energy practices. The Manchester Housing Authority is the first New England housing authority to install a solar field array, while John Lee of Lee Capital Advisers has utilized green energy practices to reduce the utility costs of his downtown properties. The video can be viewed here - https://youtu.be/rfJ_BLe2YFQ