

The Opioid Crisis

The Manchester Public Library will host “The Opioid Crisis” presented by Sarah Howroyd MSW on Tuesday October 22nd, 2019 at 7PM.

Sarah Howroyd MSW, co-founder of the Manchester, CT HOPE Initiative, will talk about the rise of opioids, the public health concern it has become in Connecticut, and her journey from addict to advocate.

The library is located at 586 Main Street, Manchester, CT.

For more information about this free program, please contact Jenn Bartlett at: 860-645-0821 or e-mail: jbartlett@manchesterct.gov.

Visit the library website at <http://library.townofmanchester.org>.