A reminder that AARP and VITA Tax Sites, are currently closed.

This closure was effective March 17, 2020, until further notice. The Manchester Human Services Department fully understands the difficult situation that leaves many of our clients in and will make every effort to resume operations, as soon as it is safe to do so. Some potential resources for tax filers include:

If you are filing a simple return, please consider using MyFreeTaxes.Com. This online tax software is entirely free and was developed through a partnership between The United Way and HR Block, so it is also reputable and secure. The software is easy to use and only requires a smartphone.

You can also find other free tax preparation and filing solutions mentioned at <https://www.irs.gov/filing/free-file-do-your-federal-taxes-for-free>

Connecticut taxpayers who are owed a refund may still file with DRS. The easiest way to file – and the fastest way to receive a refund – is through online filing, including via the DRS online Taxpayer Service Center, which is easy, secure, and free to use. <https://portal.ct.gov/DRS>

Since Connecticut's personal income tax return begins with federal Adjusted

Gross Income, it is often beneficial to complete one's federal income tax return first.

If you have questions, please contacting the IRS at 800-829-1040, and the CT Division of Revenue Services at 860-297-5962.

We thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.
